The show season is upon us once again. Outdoor shows will soon be starting and we will be enjoying the pleasant moments spent in the atmosphere that only a dog show can produce. It affords an opportunity to visit with those whom we see infrequently, talk of our show wins, new litters and matters of mutual interest. On May 24th, Morris and Essex will be celebrating its silver anniversary. This world-famous sport classic promises to be outstanding and history making in every way. Many more breeds have been added this year although the number of breeds invited to participate have been limited. We are indeed, very fortunate in having our breed represented at this show. All we need are entries to support this recognition. Mr. Forrest N. Hall, the judge will be most happy to judge fifty Irish Terriers. It is hoped the post card mailed to over half of our membership giving advance notice will provide a good attendance.

CLEVELAND CLIPPING given to us by Tom Bolton:

Mrs. Hazel Lockwood, Bedford, Ohio, was in the beauty parlor. She dashed out, with pin curlers and a towel flapping about her shoulders shouting, "Follow that dog." It happened that an officer in his patrol car was nearby. Mrs. Lockwood opened the car door jumped in. She directed the chase for "Pat," her Irish terrier strayed or stolen since April 1.

Mrs. Lockwood and her sister, Miss Florence Whittacker, Pat's co-owner, had offered a $100 reward for their missing pet. Two blocks from the beauty shop, the officer and Mrs. Lockwood overtook footsore Pat. Result of mad dash from the beauty shop -- Pat was driven home. After bath and dinner, the dog settled down for a snooze on a chair covered with pink silk, while his owners watched over him affectionately.
