MORRIS AND ESSEX.

Every day brings us closer to the BIG SHOW at Madison, N. J. May 26th is Morris and Essex day. Closing date for entries is May 14th. This is a reminder that we as Irish Terrier Club Members will be expected to see that we have a really good entry. Fifty dogs should be there and more are expected. If we don't come through we may not be asked back another year. We all know that to be asked to exhibit our breed at this famous show is an honor; our Daredevils must not be let down. By now your dogs should be ready except for those final touches. Mr. George Hartman will judge.

If you have never been to this show you owe it to yourselves not to miss it. You'll have a good time I'm sure. At this time of the year the countryside around Madison is really beautiful and Mrs. Dodge and her Committee make fine hosts.

Don't forget the Plainfield, N. J. show is the next day so why not make it a double date?

CONGRATULATIONS: It comes to my attention that another Irish Terrier has won the coveted honor of Best In Show - not once, but twice. The owner is not a Club Member, however, the win is worthy of record in the history of our Breed -- Eng. Ch. Barney's Progeny owned by J. P. O'Sullivan of Galena Park, Texas went Best In Show at Austin, Texas on April 14, 1951. At San Antonio he was first in the group - At Port Arthur he again took the group and finished his American Championship. (awaiting A.K.C. confirmation). At Houston, Texas on April 22nd he again went on to win Best In Show (over 600 entries - all Breed Show). English Ch. Wogil Melody Maker also owned by O'Sullivan is now "Mr. International" having finished his American Ch. at Dallas on April 8th (awaiting A.K.C. confirmation) He won the group the previous day at Fort Worth, Texas.

BREED BOOKS:

A good way to encourage future breeders and interest in the breed is to give a Breed Book with every puppy sold. There is a good supply on hand. Price still the same. In lots of ten or more -- 25 cents each.

PUBLICITY:

Please write about any news that comes your way concerning your dogs. Show wins -- (Best of Breed or Group placings). We'll pass it along via the News Letter. Our members are interested in YOUR Irish Terriers.
