Mr. Frank H. Hardy	Mr. Edmund V. Ryan
Miss Teresa M. Irving	Dr. Leon Seligman
Miss Dorothy M. Locke	Mrs. J. L. Tambine
	Mr. & Mrs. W. A. E. Woods

IT IS NOW TIME TO START getting your dogs ready for the Specialty and the Garden. The Specialty Show will be judged by Mr. George H. Hartman and Mr. Haywood Hartley is to judge the Irish Terriers at the Garden. Don't forget that the entries must be in early for the Garden. Several were too late last year. The Specialty will be held as before at the 212th Group Armory, Columbus Avenue at 62nd Street, New York City, Sunday, February 12. The Club is offering $100 in cash prizes and about the same money in specials to members. In addition to the above there are 20 Sterling Silver trophies and the Bronze Plaque offered by Pres. Thomas H. Mullins for Best of Breed. Mr. Foley calls attention to the opportunity to place advertising in the Specialty Show Catalogue. All copy must be in his hands 3 weeks before the date of the show. Plan on attending these shows and meeting the other members. We had a nice meeting last year with a goodly attendance.

Mr. W. A. E. Woods informs us of the recent death of a long time member of the club (1932 - 1950), Mr. Thomas J. Harris, of New Orleans. He has been an extensive exhibitor of Irish Terriers in the South West.

There was a very good showing of Irish Terriers at the Savannah, Ga. and Charleston, S. C. Shows, there being 16 entered at Savannah, and

Mr. W. A. E. Woods informs us of the recent death of a long time member of the club (1932 - 1950), Mr. Thomas J. Harris, of New Orleans. He has been an extensive exhibitor of Irish Terriers in the South West.

There was a very good showing of Irish Terriers at the Savannah, Ga. and Charleston, S. C. Shows, there being 16 entered at Savannah, and 8 at Charleston, due largely to the activities of Mrs. Sinkler and Mr. Ryan. Dr. Leon Seligman judged Irish at the Putnam Kennel Club. There seems to be an increasing interest in Irish Terriers, judging by the enquiries.

Why not show more puppies? You can win one of those lovely Silver Spoons. 8 have been won this year, to date. Puppies help to attract attention to the breed.

THERE ARE NOW 5 MEMBERS OF OUR CLUB who are Delegates to the American Kennel Club, as Dr. Seligman, Delegate to the Cantonville Kennel Club, has been added to the list of Bohr, Goss, McKinley and Mullins.

Some who are delinquent in their dues did not heed the notice in the last News Letter. The year terminates December 31.
