BULLETIN 41—JANUARY, 1951

NOTE:—This is the 41st in a series of bulletins your officers will issue from time to time on activities of interest to the membership. If you have bulletin material send it to the secretary.

FINAL REMINDER OF FEBRUARY'S 'BIG WEEK'

This is the last bulletin members of the I. T. C. A. will receive before the biggest week in the dog year for many of them — that starting Sunday, February 11, with the club's annual Specialty Show in the 212th AAA Group Armory, Columbus Avenue and 62d Street, New York City; the club's annual meeting in Hotel Taft at 8 o'clock the same evening, and the 75th annual show of the Westminster Kennel Club in Madison Square Garden the following Monday and Tuesday.

As previously announced, our specialty judge will be Mr. Theodore C. Hollander of Hamilton, Mass., and the arbiter of Irish at the Garden Mr. Alfred M. Niese of Englewood, N. J. Premium lists for the latter are already out with the official closing date January 13 but with the further proviso that no entries will be accepted after 2500th dog. If Specialty premium lists have not reached you by now they will shortly. Please observe that closing date also. It is January 29. And what is of equal importance, give the club the largest entry you possibly can.
